BWRLWM AERON

October 2022

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

Thank you to parents, friends and neighbours who supported our Macmillan coffee morning. There was a special 'Bake Off' competition and was won by Harri Hughes. Thank you to Delyth Jenkins for judging.

A massive £1,100.00 was raised in one morning. Well done everyone.

TRIATHLON SUCCESS

Congratulations to Dylan May-John on winning 9 out of 10 Tristar triathlon competitions this year which is organized by British Triathlon and Triathlon Wales

STAFFING NEWS

Congratulations to Mrs Tobias-Fanning her husband Tomos and daughter Lois on the birth of Mared Wyn Fanning.

Congratulations to Mr James and Vicky on the occasion of their recent wedding.

Goodbye to Miss Natalie who is leaving the kitchen. Good luck in your new job.

SHOWING THE RED CARD TO RACISM

To mark the day a special assembly was held in the care of the eldest members of the School Council. Very important messages were shared. The children also created posters in class.

RUGBY SUCCESS

Congratulations to Harry Lloyd who has been chosen to play for the Ceredigion under 11's rugby team. Good luck.

FOOTBALL FESTIVAL

A team of year 5 and 6 boys and girls travelled to Blaendolau playing field to take part in a Football Festival organized by Ceredigion Actif in partnership with Ceredigion Schools Football Association. The teams have a full day playing against 11 other Ceredigion schools.

Thank you to the staff for their commitment and time.

LANGUAGE FAIR

Many thanks to Cardi Iaithe for organizing an excellent Language Fair for pupils in year 5 and 6. An excellent array of activities were held through the medium of Welsh. The children had the opportunity of using VR sets and playing a ukulele.

WELCOME

At the beginning of term Malacai, Ruby, Non, Macsen, Jac, Hanna, Idris, Arabella, Alaia, Tabitha and Emmy started in the Nursery class. It was great to also welcome Madog back to school and to year 1. By now they have all settled in well and have made new friends.

In the middle of this half term, Leo was welcomed to year 6. We hope he is enjoying with us.

OWAIN GLYNDŴR

A whole school assembly was held and various activities were held in class.

COGURDD

Congratulations to everyone for their efforts in the school round of Cogurdd. The standard was fantastic as they created a salad. Well done to Nanw Griffiths-Jones who won and good luck to her in the regional round.

FIRST EXPERIENCE OF THE MUSIC SERVICE

Thank you to Helen Williams from the Ceredigion Music department for coming to the school to hold 10 sessions of the first experience of the music service with year 3 pupils. During this half term the children have had the opportunity to experience playing the pBuzz and violin. They are enjoying the experience and are looking forward to further session after the holidays.

SCHOOL COUNCILS

Siarter iaithe— Members went around Aberaeron promoting Shwmae Sumae day.

School Council— Members helped coordinate arrangements for the Macmillan Coffee Morning and also sold raffle ticket during the morning.

Digital Ambassadors— The eldest members filmed the 'Siarter Iaithe' promoting Shwmae Sumae day around Aberaeron.

Sports Ambassadors— Members attended training in T. Llew Jones school organised by Ceredigion Actif. They will use what they learnt to hold P.E. sessions in school.

School Eco and Healthy Schools Council— The members are still busy looking after the plants in the play tunnel. They have sold a large number of the produce that have been grown outside the school.

FRINEDS OF THE SCHOOL

A very successful coat swap was held. A big thank you to everyone who contributed.

A meeting was held in the school hall and it was great to see many new faces. Exciting ideas were discussed to raise money for the school.

YEAR 1 'ELFED' DAY

The class was full of colour as the children came to school colourfully dressed. In the morning everyone had the opportunity to cook cakes, prepare sandwiches and decorate biscuits ready for the party. An Elfed treasure hunt was held where the children searched for elephants around the school and then sorted them by colour. In the afternoon a disco and games were held and a feast was had to finish the day.

CEREDIGION WELSH CHARTER

Year 2 have been very busy creating a story based on Seren and Sbarc along with schools in the Aeron cluster. The class has had virtual meetings with Llanarth and Ciliau Parc schools. Many thanks to Ceredigion Welsh Charter for organizing and we look forward to seeing the finished story.

SHWMAE SUMAE

On a fine October afternoon, a few members of the 'Welsh Charter' committee walked to town to promote 'Shwmae, Su'mae' day. Some carried large plaques with 'Dwedwch Shwmae' painted on them while others distributed colourful stickers explaining the purpose of the day to the shoppers. There was a lot of attention from local people, workers, visitors (some from Switzerland who were very interested in our language) as well as one of Wales' most prominent children's authors, Dr Elin Meek. Keeping the committee company were some of the members of the 'Digital Wizards' who filmed the conversation and the fun and they set about editing the clips creating a short film which was shown in the whole school assembly the following morning. Activities were also held in class to promote the day.

HARVEST SERVICE

Our harvest service was held at the school with a presentation from each class. Contributions were collected towards the Aberaeron Food Bank. Thank you very much for your generous contributions.

LIBRARY

To celebrate Welsh Libraries week, the Nursery class visited Aberaeron Library where they had a story from Delyth Huws and an opportunity to borrow books for the class.

Thank you to Eryl Jones from the ICT department of Ceredigion County Council for holding an Adobe Express workshop with year 3 and 4 pupils.

SAFETY

Many thanks to PCSO Charlotte for coming to give a presentation to all Year 3, 4, 5 and 6 pupils on safety during Halloween and Fireworks. An important lesson was learnt.

AUTUMNAL WALK

The Nursey and Reception class went for an Autumnal walk around Aberaeron collecting leaves and acorns. A great morning was had using their senses to see, touch, smell and hear the world around them.

MICROBITS

Year 6 pupils received a Micro-bits workshop led by Tomos Fearn from Aberystwyth University. The children designed landing gear for a Mars rover using recycled materials using the microbit to measure the force of the landing.

BBC NATIONAL ORCHESTRA

All key stage 2 pupils recently attended the BBC National Orchestra of Wales concert at Aberaeron Comprehensive School.

CEREDIGION REGIONAL COGURDD

Well done to Nanw Griffiths-Jones for her effort at the regional round of Cogurdd against 41 pupils from Ceredigion schools.

T. LLEW JONES DAY

It was great to see the children come to school dressed up as pirates, gypsies, servants and maids. There was a special assembly to start the day under the care of year 2 and there were many cross-curricular activities in the classes.

DREAM JOB DAY

All year 2 pupils came to school dressed up as their dream job. A variety of jobs were chosen e.g. policeman, football players, teacher, vet and many more. The day was soent introducing themselves to the class and talking about why they had chosen the job.

GUIDE DOGS

As part of the Receptions class theme work on 'eyes', an optician role play was created in class. To finish the theme, the Guide Dogs were invited to the school to show the children the important work they do helping blind people. The children enjoyed themselves in the midst of the dogs.

AERON CLUSTER CROSS-COUNTRY

It was great to host the Aeron cluster cross-country competition on the school fields. All the schools in the cluster joined with 278 children participating. All pupils in year 3, 4, 5 and 6 had the opportunity to participate. Well done to everyone for their effort.
